

PLEASE vote AGAINST further deregulation. Giant media conglomerates are not able to serve the public interest well. They do not cater to or understand the needs of local markets. They shirk their responsibility to serve the public interest and use airwaves that my government, a government for the people, leases them for WELL below market price. The argument that they need this to compete with cable is false. These same companies are connected to the cable channel